
Disaster Recovery: A Hands-On Workshop

Presented by

Munters Corporation and the Society of Southwest Archivists

Saturday, November 11, 2006 8:30 - 4:00

$75.00 (Lunch Provided)

3250 West Story Road, Suite 100, Irving, Texas 75038

Munters Corporation and the Society of Southwest Archivists present Disaster Recovery: A Hands-On Workshop on November 11, 2006, at the Munters Recovery Center in Irving, Texas. In addition to practicing the appropriate procedures to rescue archival materials damaged in disasters, workshop participants will also be instructed in basic disaster planning guidelines, damage assessment, protocol generation, quality control, and project management.

Joe Perko, Document Recovery Specialist, Paul Himmelstein, Conservator, and Rodney Pearson, Restoration Account Manager from Munters will present a day packed with information and opportunities. Joe and Paul have extensive experience in document recovery. For their work at the American Bible Society's Rare Book Collection in New York City see http://www.ifma.org/daily_articles/2006/aug/08_09.cfm.

REGISTER EARLY!!

The class will be limited to 35 participants.

After October 1, the class will be marketed outside of SSA.

To register: print this page, complete the information, and send it along with a check made payable to THE SOCIETY OF SOUTHWEST ARCHIVISTS for $75.00 per person to:

Trish Nugent

Special Collections Librarian / Archivist

Loyola University New Orleans

Campus Box 198

6363 St. Charles Avenue

New Orleans, LA 70118

panugent@loyno.edu (504) 864-7092

Name:
Address:
City:	State:	Zip:
Institution:
Email:
Phone (Day):	Phone (Alternate):
